

STUDY ABROAD IN Paris

SUMMER 2025
JUNE 28 – JULY 8, 2025

Professor
Heather Bennet

Professor
Kristin Mihaylovich

The iconic city of Paris, is known for its stunning beauty and politics. It's a living museum of the nation's revolutionary and imperialist pasts. Join professor Heather Bennett and Kristin Mihaylovich, to explore the city's history and current affairs. On the trip, we will visit sites such as the Palace of Versailles, a significant site of French monarchical authority. Immerse yourself in the rich history, art, and current social and racial justice debates that are on display in the city. Among so many other places, we will visit Basilica of the Sacre Cœur and Père Lachaise Cemetery, the national Immigration Museum, and we will take a guided tour of Black Paris. You will visit many statues and learn about imperialism, immigration, migration and diversity while you explore Parisian neighborhoods and museums. Relive your favorite sporting moments from the Olympics while you immerse yourself in the rich history, art, and current social and racial justice debates that are on display in the city.

Program Fee: $2,535

*Cost does not include flight to-from Paris, class fees for Global Studies 35, lunch and dinner most days. Breakfast is included.
