IV. Standing Business

- a. Question of the day: What is your favorite part about fall?
- b. Peacebuilding Seminar Applications

We've received 8 applications from faculty interested in attending the Peacebuilding Seminar. Denise will confirm that the budget will allow all applicants to be sponsored by Global Citizenship to attend the seminar. Motion to sponsor all 8 applicants pending budget approval, Pete Morris. Second: Lauren Movius. Approved: Delphine Broccard, Brandon Reilly, Taneka Washington, Sri Susilowati, Denise Kinsella, Catherine Weir.

- c. Florence Co-Lead Applications

The GC Committee members were asked at the last meeting to review the 25 applications received for the Florence co-lead and pick their top candidates. Delphine created a google poll where everyone voted anonymously. Based on voting results, Delphine will contact the top ten candidates and instruct them on "next steps," which include the creation of a video. The candidates' videos will be reviewed by the GC Committee members at the next meeting. In no particular order, the candidates are Heather Bennett, Aileen Huang, Michael Roccio, Toni Trives, Susan Kolko, Brian Driscoll, Alessandro Grippo, Paola Lorenzi, Tania Maync, and Kayli Weatherford.

d. Plus Ones Policy Vote

Based on the GCC's last discussion, Delphine made a few more edits and added a conclusion to the Plus Ones Policy to clarify the Committee's motive for creating this document in the first place. Motion to approve and pass the Guidelines for Accompanying Adults and/or Minors of Faculty Traveling on Faculty-Led Study Abroad Programs to the Executive Committee for approval, Taneka Washington. Second: Brandon Reilly. Approved: Delphine Broccard, Pete Morris, Lauren Movius, Sri Susilowati. Rejecting: Denise Kinsella and Catherine Weir.
