IV. Standing Business

a. Question of the Day

What change(s) would you make to your current living space?

b. Study Abroad

The Committee discussed the possibility of resuming the Study Abroad Program which was discontinued due to the pandemic and suspension of funding. Denise will reach out to the VP of Enrollment Development about the possibility of funding being reinstated.

c. Global Grants Process

Delphine shared details about the recent Art Department workshop which was funded by a Global Grant and drew about 50 participants. The Committee reviewed edits in the grant application. After grant events are complete, the Committee would like to receive deliverables from grant recipients—for example, recordings, photos, etc. Additionally, the Committee seeks feedback about the event in the form of student assignments, survey answers, etc. The deliverables along with the participation feedback would then be featured on the GC website.

d. Global Citizenship Symposium

Judges will return their scores for the student Global Symposium projects by April 18th. Funding for prizes has been secured from the Academic Senate Committee. The event takes place May 5th.

e. GC Theme Brainstorming

The committee looked over the previous GC themes and discussed ideas for the 2022-2024 GC theme. Delphine will reach out to the SMC community for additional theme ideas.

f. End of year theme party

The Committee discussed plans for an end of year party/workshop to launch the new GC theme for 2022-2024.

V. Future Business

The Committee will resume the discussion for the new GC theme for 2022-2024 and will take into consideration the campus community's suggestions.
