So if you're interested in either of those two vacancies, check them out. I think I have the. This is the application form for both if you're interested in applying for those vacancies.

Just, you have to email food, security@smc.edu, and ask for the survey to be added to the list of deliveries.

8.4 Club Announcements (limit of 1 min)

- Club Grow-
 - So I know that everything is virtual like people are having difficult times connecting but if you guys are interested in participating and like a group activity look to communal activity. There'll be a virtual spill but there'll be like hands on, we're going to be growing mushrooms. I saw the possibility of making plant based cheeses, but I was like that's not a good idea because like it's not as practical as efficient as mushrooms. So we're going to be wrong. Let's use this semester and if you guys are good with Gardening or just like our patient, like, join the club does mushrooms.
- Writers Room-
 - Thank you chair. So we are going to be beginning meetings this Tuesday. I will post our flyer in the chat. If anyone feels like spreading that around that'd be great. But if anyone wants to just join us. Send me an email and we'll be sending out an email to our numbers shortly with details. Thank you.
