SMC is committed to empowering all students to take action to eliminate discrimination, harassment, and abuse. Any form of sexual violence, harassment, or physical abuse occurring against an SMC student, on SMC property, or at an SMC event or activity is a VIOLATION of District policies and regulations.

Unlawful discrimination is conduct that denies or limits a person's full and equal access to participate in, or benefit from education and/or employment programs, services, or activities. Sexual harassment or misconduct is a form of sex discrimination and is also unlawful under Title IX federal regulations.
